August 2015: Collaborative project: Washstand, mid 19th century!

Wood for the project has been acquired.

Peter Leavens has bought the lumber for the projects: 2 washstands. Curly maple from Groff for one of them. Jeremy has donated a plank. We have heavy cherry for the legs and a friend has offered to donate more cherry. We can do the turning without further work. The planks need to be planed to correct thickness of $3/8$ ", $1/2$ ", $5/8$ " and $3/4$

Festival of Lights

Summer time, but not too early to start thinking: Ornaments.

The Guild every year decorates a Christmas tree for the Festival of Lights, a Cokesbury Village event at Thanksgiving. Proceeds benefit Hospice of Delaware

Now is the time to brainstorm and plan those ornaments.

inch and we like to have access to a planer. (Hans has a 15 inch planer available at the Pendle Hill woodshop in Media.)

July 15 Meeting

Peter explained the plan to construct two washstands, one will be made of curly maple, the other of cherry, but four inches wider. Tim Sabo & team will work on the legs, Charlie Given & team on the cabinet, Wayne Scholz & team on the arcade, Peter Leavens & team on the drawers.

Dave Webber tools, update from Ron Hasse.

Thanks to Charlie Given and his pickup truck and some help from a neighbor of Al Webber all of Dave's remaining tools were delivered to Horst Auctioneers, Ephrata, Pennsylvania where they will sold at auction on Wednesday, August 5th. Al was pleased to have them gone. Unfortunately some of the better tools were sold by Al (who has no idea of their real value) to Guild members who made the trip to Oxford before Charlie and I came for the pickup.

As the first attempt to help the heirs of Guild members to sell their inherited tools I count this a mixed success.

I will recommend that the Guild require an inventory, both tabular and photographic, be available to our committee if we are to provide assistance in future cases.
